

Water Politics from a Global Perspective: Book Launch and Public Discussion

Date/Time: 4 June, 15-16.30

Location: Café Mellemfolk, Mejlgade 53, Aarhus C (4th floor)

Moderator/Host:

Derek Pardue (Aarhus University, co-founder of CEBRAGA)

Speakers:

Daniel Mains (Professor, University of Oklahoma, US - author of Nourishing Growth and Suffocating Life: Water, Politics, and Infrastructure in Urban Oklahoma)

Ciara Kierens (Professor, Aarhus University, leader of the FILTERSCAPE project on water politics, health and technology in Denmark and Mexico)

Léa Lebeau-pin-Salamon (Post-doctoral Researcher, UC Louvain, Belgium), active research on water politics in Brazil

Contact person (Derek Pardue): dpardue@cas.au.dk

Event co-sponsors: CEBRAGA (Center for Brazilian and Global Affairs), Departments of Global Studies and Anthropology, and the AU - Water Cluster

Nourishing Growth and Suffocating Life

DANIEL MAINS

Water, Politics, and Infrastructure in Urban Oklahoma

